SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

In re Terrorist Attacks on September 11, 2001	03 MDL 1570 (RCC) ECF Case RICO STATEMENT applicable to the Bin Mahfouz Group, as that term is defined herein
---	--

This document relates to: Federal Insurance Co. v. al Qaida
03 CV 06978 (RCC)

RICO STATEMENT APPLICABLE TO THE BIN MAHFOUZ GROUP

Based on information currently available, plaintiffs submit this RICO statement pursuant to the Case Management Order dated June 15, 2004 for defendants:

- Mohammed Salim Bin Mahfouz (“Bin Mahfouz”)
- International Development Fund (“IDF”)
- Saudi Economic & Development Company (“Sedco”)

(These defendants are sometimes hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Bin Mahfouz Group.”) Given the vastly complicated nature of the conspiracy and other wrongdoing that led to the events of September 11, 2001, much information is presently unavailable to plaintiffs, absent discovery. Plaintiffs therefore reserve the right to amend this RICO statement as information is learned and verified and after discovery is obtained.

1. The unlawful conduct is in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1962(c) and/or (d).
2. The names of the defendants to whom this RICO statement pertains are Mohammed Salim Bin Mahfouz (“Bin Mahfouz”), International Development Fund (“IDF”), and Saudi Economic & Development Company (“Sedco”). The alleged misconduct and basis for liability is set forth in Exhibit “A”.

3. Not applicable. All known wrongdoers are named as defendants in this action. Given the vastly complicated nature of the conspiracy and other wrongdoing that led to the events of September 11, 2001, however, much information is unavailable to plaintiffs, and the identities of other wrongdoers may be revealed through discovery. Plaintiffs therefore reserve the right to amend this RICO statement as information is learned and verified and after discovery is obtained.

4. The name of each victim and the manner in which each was injured is indicated on the chart attached hereto as Exhibit "B".

5. (a) list of predicate acts and specific statutes violated:

conspiracy to commit murder	NY CLS Penal § 105.15; NY CLS Penal § 125.25(xi)
conspiracy to commit arson	NY CLS Penal § 105.15; NY CLS Penal § 150.15
Travel Act	18 U.S.C. § 1952
illegal transactions in monetary instruments	18 U.S.C. § 1956
money laundering	18 U.S.C. § 1957
defrauding the US Government	18 U.S.C. § 371
filing false or materially false tax returns	26 U.S.C. § 7206(1), (2)
engaging in a corrupt endeavor to impede and impair the due administration of the internal revenue laws	26 U.S.C. § 7212(a)

(b) dates of, the participants in, and a description of the facts surrounding the predicate acts

DATES	PARTICIPANTS	FACTS
mid-1990s to 9/11/2001	Bin Mahfouz and IDF	Throughout this period, Bin Mahfouz and IDF conspired to support terrorism and to obfuscate the roles of the various participants and conspirators in Radical Muslim Terrorism, which conspiracy culminated in the Attack.
late 1990s to 9/11/2001	The Bin Mahfouz Group	The Bin Mahfouz Group undertook the above-named actions as part of a conspiracy to commit murder and arson, in that it knew that the Enterprise in which it was participating, Radical Muslim Terrorism, planned to and would commit an act of deadly aggression against the United States in the near future, using the resources and support supplied by the Bin Mahfouz Group mid-1990s to 9/11/2001	The Bin Mahfouz Group	The Bin Mahfouz Group agreed to form and associate themselves with the Enterprise and agreed to commit more than two predicate acts, i.e. , multiple acts of murder and arson, in furtherance of a pattern of racketeering activity in connection with the Enterprise.

(c) not applicable

(d) No.

(e) No.

(f) The predicate acts form a pattern of racketeering in that they are continuous, and are a part of the Enterprise's regular way of doing business. Other of the defendants consistently, evenly constantly, laundered money, filed false tax returns, and otherwise impeded and impaired the administration of the tax laws as part of their scheme to conduit money to terrorists, and yet obfuscate their support of Radical Muslim Terrorism.

(g) The predicate acts relate to each other (horizontal relatedness) as part of a common plan because each act of money laundering and tax evasion allowed certain of the defendants to surreptitiously provide funds to terrorist organizations, including al Qaida, which conspiracy culminated in the Attack.

- (a) The enterprise (the “Enterprise” or “Radical Muslim Terrorism”) is comprised of the defendants named in the First Amended Complaint, and is a collection of persons, organizations, businesses, and nations associated in fact.
- (b) The Enterprise has its origins in the defeat of the Soviets in Afghanistan in the late 1980s, when Osama Bin Ladin (“Bin Ladin”) formed an organization called “The Foundation” or “al Qaida.” Al Qaida was intended to serve as a foundation upon which to build a global Islamic army. The structure of the Enterprise is an association in fact with common and complex goals that consist of far more than the mere desire to perpetrate the acts of racketeering outlined herein. Rather, the Enterprise utilizes acts of racketeering to further its overall common purposes of: (i) spreading a particularly virulent brand of radical, conservative Islam; (ii) eliminating Western influences in Islamic countries, including Western influences that are perceived to keep in power repressive Arab regimes that are not true to Islam; and (iii) punishing Israel, and the United States for its perceived support of Israel. Radical Muslim Terrorism does not feature a centralized hierarchy, because the lack of a centralized hierarchy is essential to the Enterprise’s clandestine nature and its success. Thus, although al Qaida had its own membership roster and a structure of “committees” to guide and oversee such functions as training terrorists, proposing targets, financing operations, and issuing edicts, the committees were not a hierarchical chain of command but were instead a means for coordinating functions and providing material support to operations. The Bin Mahfouz Group fits neatly into this framework by raising funds for and providing funding to and otherwise providing material support for the members of the Enterprise who engaged in the Attack.
- (c) no.
- (d) The Bin Mahfouz Group is associated with the Enterprise.
- (e) The Bin Mahfouz Group is a member of the Enterprise, and is separate and distinct from the Enterprise.
- (f) The Bin Mahfouz Group intended to further the Attack and adopted the goal of furthering and/or facilitating that criminal endeavor, which criminal activity culminated in the Attack.

7. The pattern of racketeering activity conducted by the Bin Mahfouz Group is separate from the existence of Radical Muslim Terrorism, but was a necessary component to the Attack.

8. The Enterprise conducts terrorism all over the world; the racketeering activity conducted by the Bin Mahfouz Group funds that activity, which activity culminated in the Attack. The usual and daily activities of the Enterprise includes recruitment, indoctrination, and the provisioning and operation of training camps, all of which activities are funded by the racketeering activities described herein.

9. The Enterprise benefits by spreading its ideology, by suppressing other forms of Islam, and through the gratification of destroying its perceived enemies.
10. The Enterprise, and the racketeering activities conducted by the Bin Mahfouz Group, relies heavily on the American interstate system of commerce for banking, supplies, communications, and virtually all its essential commercial functions, and in that manner affects interstate commerce. Additionally, the Attack itself affected commerce. See Rasul v. Bush, 124 S. Ct. 2686, No. 03-334, 2004 U.S. LEXIS 4760, * 8 (stating that the Attack “severely damaged the U.S. economy”).
11. Not applicable.
12. Not applicable.
13. Radical Muslim Terrorism “employs” certain individuals, only a few of whose identities are known, including defendant Osama bin Ladin.
14. The history of the conspiracy behind Radical Muslim Terrorism could, and has, filled many books, but for purposes of the present RICO Statement, the following is offered. After being turned out of the Sudan in May 1996, al Qaida established itself in Afghanistan, and relied on well-placed financial facilitators, including the Bin Mahfouz Group, and laundered funds from Islamic so-called charities, including charities like IDF, and corporations like Sedco. The financial facilitators raised money from witting and unwitting donors like the Bin Mahfouz Group. They also relied heavily on certain imams at mosques who were willing to divert the zaka, the mandatory charitable contributions required of all Muslims. Al Qaida also collected money from employees of corrupted charities like IDF.

The funds thus raised were used to, among other things, operate terrorist training camps in Afghanistan, where some recruits were trained in conventional warfare but where the best and most zealous recruits received terrorist training. The curriculum in the camps placed with great emphasis on ideological and religious indoctrination. All trainees and other personnel were encouraged to think creatively about ways to commit mass murder.

The camps were able to operate only because of the worldwide network of recruiters, travel facilitators, and document forgers who vetted recruits and helped them get in and out of Afghanistan. From the ranks of these recruits the nineteen perpetrators of the Attack were selected. None of this would have been possible without the funds supplied by participants and conspirators like the Bin Mahfouz Group. Indeed, the Enterprise would not have been successful without the enthusiastic participation of all of the conspirators, including the Bin Mahfouz Group. In order to identify nineteen individuals willing, able and competent to carry out the Attack, al Qaida needed to select from a vast pool of recruits and trainees, which pool would not have been available to it without the assistance provided by the Bin Mahfouz Group. The Bin Mahfouz Group, with knowledge and intent, agreed to the overall objectives of the conspiracy, and agreed to commit at least two predicate acts and all agreed to participate in the conspiracy, either expressly or impliedly. The Bin Mahfouz Group also, with knowledge and intent, agreed to and did aid and abet all of the above illegal activities, RICO predicate acts, and RICO violations.

15. As the subrogees of both individual and property claimants, plaintiffs have been harmed in their business and property through the claims that they have paid out or for which they have reserved.
16. Plaintiffs' damages -- injuries, the loss of life and property damage that resulted from defendants' actions -- are direct in that they are not derivative of damage to a third party. Rather the plaintiffs' insureds' assignees were the "reasonably foreseeable victims of a RICO violation" and the "intended victims of the racketeering enterprise," i.e., terrorism, the culmination of which was the Attack.
17. Each defendant is jointly and severally liable for the damages suffered by each plaintiff, as set forth in Exhibit "B".

EXHIBIT “A”RICO STATEMENT*QUESTION # 2

DEFENDANT	MISCONDUCT	BASIS OF LIABILITY
Bin Mahfouz	Bin Mahfouz is a wealthy Saudi national and is identified on the “Golden Chain” as one of al Qaida’s principal individual financiers. For many years, bin Mahfouz owned a controlling interest in National Commercial Bank (“NCB”), and served as President and CEO of that institution. While under his control, NCB provided extensive financial services and other forms of material support to al Qaida. Bin Mahfouz also endowed the Blessed Relief Foundation, established to serve as a vehicle for funding and otherwise supporting terrorist organizations, including al Qaida, and designated as a Foreign Terrorist Organization under Executive Order 13224 based on its extensive involvement in al Qaida’s global operations. Bin Mahfouz is also intimately associated with the International Development Foundation, another charity operating within al Qaida’s support infrastructure. Bin Mahfouz this participates and conspires in al Qaida’s operations with full knowledge that his funds would be used to support al Qaida’s operations and terrorist attacks, which culminated in the Attack.	1962(c) 1962(d)
IDF	IDF is one of the charities operating within al Qaida’s support infrastructure, through which Bin Mahfouz contributed to the Enterprise, including al Qaida. IDF was named in a 2001 French parliamentary report as a financial front for al Qaida.	1962(c) 1962(d)
Sedco	Sedco is a holding company controlled by Bin Mahfouz, through which he generates funds that are contributed to and/or laundered for the Enterprise. Sedco was named in a 2001 French parliamentary report as a financial front for al Qaida.	1962(c) 1962(d)
